Subject: Re: City respond and plan ahead of weekend

Hi Councillors. The plans for this weekend and the topics you have listed (other than the injunction on which David White will be sending a detailed memo to Council before the end of the day) are the responsibility of the Ottawa Police. The Ottawa Police are in a media briefing right now answering questions about this weekend. I realize your legitimate needs to obtain information about the Police plans. I, nor other City staff, are in a position or accountable to share the Police plans or to answer questions related to your list of topics. We would be pleased to join in a meeting with police and yourselves to provide information about how we are supporting the Ottawa Police and how we are delivering City services to our residents. Your request for a meeting with Ottawa Police should be directed to Chief Sloly and your colleague, Chair Deans. City staff will make themselves available when you book the meeting. I've copied the Mayor's Office as well as Kim Ayotte.

Subject: City respond and plan ahead of weekend

Hi Steve,

Catherine and I are requesting a meeting with you,Mayor's office, and City team who is needed today, after 5pm.

We need a plan ahead of the weekend.

Note, we have seen no improvements on the ground. Police is at intersections but not in communities (walking) incident are escalating.

What is the plan;

1. Prov? (ask)
2. Feds? (ask)
3. Towing?
4. Injunction?

5. Enforcement?

Thank you for organising and bringing clarity to our concerns.
Mat
